“21 – Variation of rent

- (1) The park owner* may increase the rent payable under a residential park agreement by giving written notice to the resident specifying the date as from which the increase takes effect.
- (2) However—
 - (a) the right to increase the rent may be excluded or limited by the terms of the residential park agreement; and
 - (b) if the residential park agreement is for a fixed term, the agreement is taken to exclude an increase in rent during the term unless the agreement specifically allows for an increase in rent; and
 - (c) the date fixed for an increase of rent must be at least 12 months after the date of the agreement or, if there has been a previous increase of rent under this section, the last increase and, subject to subsection (3), at least 60 days after the notice is given.
- (3) If the maximum rent for the rented property has been fixed by a housing improvement notice, and the notice is revoked, the park owner* may, by notice given under this section within 60 days after revocation of the housing improvement notice, increase the rent for the rented property from a date falling at least 14 days after the notice is given.
- (4) The rent payable under a residential park agreement may be reduced by mutual agreement between the park owner* and the resident.
- (5) A reduction of rent may be made on a temporary basis so that the rent reverts to the level that would have been otherwise applicable at the end of a specified period.
- (6) If the rent payable under a residential park agreement is increased or reduced under this section, the terms of the agreement are varied accordingly.
- (7) This section does not affect the operation of a provision of a residential park agreement under which the rent payable under the agreement changes automatically on a basis set out in the agreement.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, a series of residential park agreements between the same parties and relating to the same site is to be treated as a single residential park agreement unless at least 12 months have elapsed since rent for the rented property was fixed or last increased.
